

The system should allow users to register with email and password.
Use OAuth2 for authentication.
Create a REST API for product listing and cart management.
Implement unit testing for all API endpoints.
Deploy the application on AWS Lambda.